

Explanation of “The Jester”

Your role as Jester is to tell a brief joke or funny story to lighten up the mood for the evening.

1. Please observe our club's "Bedroom, Bathroom, Bar" rule (this means, no talk about sex, bodily functions or foul language).
2. The Jester's joke or humorous anecdote/story should take between 1/2 and two minutes to complete.
3. When finished, smile broadly, extend your hand to the President and say, “Thank-you Mr. President.”

ALSO -- See the page entitled "Description of Some Meeting Functions" in the New Member Orientation manual given to new members.

IMPORTANT: If you cannot fill the role of Jester for the evening you are scheduled, please find a replacement Jester and inform the VP Education and Toastmaster as soon as possible.
